COVID-19 Relief

The COVID-19 Pandemic took our community by storm, and like many other communities around the world, our neighbors were not able to go to work and our children were not able to go to school. Therefore, basic needs were elevated beyond average poverty rates. Black River United Way stepped up to the plate by pulling in over $200,000 in relief grants for Georgetown and Williamsburg Counties.

These funds were primarily focused towards providing financial resources to individuals who were working full-time and part-time jobs and experienced lay-offs and furloughs. Because of the grants that were awarded, Black River United Way was able to assist with rent/mortgages, utilities, food insecurities, child care cost, transportation, COVID-19 care kits and even internet access to ensure our students learning success. Our partners who participated in these efforts did an outstanding job in getting the resources to the families that needed it the most.

Our Partners include:

- o Catholic Charities - served 178 individuals through food boxes
- o Caring and Sharing - served 2702 individuals through food services
- o A Father's Place - served 178 families through rent/mortgage and utility

Early Grade Reading Success has been a focus for Black River United Way since 2014. Through partnerships with our school districts in Georgetown and Williamsburg Counties, local educators, businesses, and after-school programs, we work to ensure that our earliest learners can read on grade level by the end of 3rd Grade by providing extra reading intervention supports. Overall, we are Growing Great Readers through six (6) programs:

- o STAR I (Success Takes a Reader) - In-school literacy tutoring program that focus on site word recognition to increase oral reading fluency.
- o STAR II (Success Takes a Reader) - In-school and after-school literacy tutoring that provides in-depth support in mastering comprehension, phonemic awareness, vocabulary and phonics.

have access to economic stability. The primary focus is to help low to moderate income individuals become more self-sufficient. Through this bold play we support the Emergency Food and Shelter Program, which provides federal grants to local community-based organizations in Georgetown county to aid with rent/mortgage, utility and food insecurity services, and the Self-Sufficiency Action Council which tackles community barriers. In addition, we also provide free tax services through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program. VITA offers free tax help to people who generally make $54,000 or less, persons with disabilities, the elderly and limited English-speaking taxpayers who need assistance in preparing their own tax returns.

Black River United way wants to make sure that individuals are controlling their money, not their money controlling them. Through partnerships, we coordinate volunteers, local agencies and community stakeholders to support families in our community.
